[Chinese shoes Network - Brand News] April 17 news, Peak (Peak store) CEO Xu Zhihua at the shoes and apparel industry conference Zhang said that the current electricity supplier can be called "traditional electronic Business ", and it can not be regarded as entirely new industries. E-commerce as an emerging pattern should be open to all aspects of the enterprise. "Electricity supplier in depth every aspect of business, trade, distribution, production can be e-commerce."

Hua Xu believes that now e-commerce business logic problem. "The concept of e-commerce to reduce costs Bluff. Now look at the flow rate of the cost of the electricity supplier has been far higher than the cost of the line store. And on the platform, the traffic is not a business."

About Peak electricity supplier, the group did not set the proportion of sales of electricity supplier. Zhi-Hua Xu said that Olympic did not think electricity providers and traditional businesses are separated. "The future of the Olympic in physical stores, consumers can buy the store no style, this product may be sent from Guangzhou to Beijing."

In addition, Xu Zhihua proposed that in the Internet era, the user's individual needs will emerge, enterprises must find a balance to meet the needs of individual users and businesses between the cost, to create new business models.

"Prior to this, the definition of consumer brands too simple." Xu Zhihua said it has changed the consumer side, consumers have formed a smaller scale ethnic groups. Prior to the large-scale production mode, it is difficult to meet consumer demand. "How to transform your business model and supply chain system, how to find a balance, to meet the needs of each tribe is now brand owners need to think about."
